What clients are saying about Caring Hands

“Caring Hands provide reliable, caring, and well qualified workers for our church. From Sundays, to Wednesdays, and special events, they are always willing to accommodate our needs. The workers they send are receptive of our instructions and any task they are given for the day. Most importantly, they love the children and do a wonderful job of interacting and teaching them. We love partnering with Caring Hands to provide the BEST care for all of the children in our church!”

Kashawni Dirks
Preschool Ministry Director

“Caring Hands has been fabulous for my family. I was concerned how to find flexible child-care for my three children while traveling. Your service has sent me some of the nicest, most compassionate and professional child care providers...you have been wonderful at accommodating my family's needs. I have recommended your service to many of my co-workers and neighbors. Thank you so much for all you do!”
